

We're not kidding...

WAIT! YES WE ARE!

The kids have arrived at Prairie Fruits Farm and more arrive each day! With over 100 baby goats on the way, you are invited to a baby shower!

Sunday, March 14
drop in any time between 12-5PM
Prairie Fruits Farm, north Urbana (directions on back)

See newly-born baby goats (kids) and probably even ones being born!

Meet nationally-acclaimed chef Paul Virant from Vie Restaurant!

Bring the kids (yours, that is)!

Tell the neighbors!

Get grandma and grandpa out of the house!

Wear sturdy shoes!

Sample award-winning goat cheese and other local food delights!

Prairie Fruits Farm is an award-winning artisan cheesemaking cottage industry. On seven idyllic acres of land in north Urbana, this environmentally-friendly, family-owned business is severely threatened by the Olympian Drive project.

Come see the mama and baby goats, this award-winning family farm and business, and learn about how the Olympian Drive project would destroy one of Urbana's environmental and business gems.

Paul Virant is a nationally-acclaimed chef and owner of the award-winning Vie Restaurant in Western Springs, Illinois.

Through Vie, Virant shares his passion for farms each time he enters the kitchen. His cuisine reflects the seasons and local harvests, supporting local family farms like Prairie Fruits Farm.

Virant will be joining Prairie Fruits Farm's chefs Alisa and Molly to prepare some great locally-sourced, free finger foods - come and enjoy!

More information about Vie is at www.vierestaurant.com.

Directions:

Prairie Fruits Farm
4410 N. Lincoln Ave.

Take Lincoln Ave north from University Ave. Just past Lincolnwood Warehouse Systems, take a RIGHT onto N. Lincoln. The road curves sharply, then take a LEFT to stay on Lincoln. Cross the bridge over the creek, then ~1 mile to the goats! Lincoln jogs some: look for the log house, windmill, and white barns. Watch for the signs!
